At the or - gan, dear, last ev' - ning, You sang me that old time song, If life's sum - mer days were o - ver, And up - on your locks I'd see

"Sil - ver threads a-mong the gold." — And as I sat there a dream-ing Of the "Sil - ver threads a-mong the gold." — I would be as true and faith-ful, As I sun - ny gold - en past, I could see you as of old. — That promised you to be, Long a - go in days of old. — In my old time song en-thralled me With its plain-tive mel-o-dy, And you heart it's al-ways sum-mer, Where love's flow-ers bloom a-new, And I'll seemed to ask me Will I con-stant be; Then with al-ways keep them Bloom-ing, dear, for you; Tho' we all my heart I an-swered, "Yes, through all e-ter-ni-ty; both grow old and fee-ble, I will be stead-fast and true

Just the same, dear, as of old."
Just the same, dear, as of old.
